THE LATEST CALADIUMS

A very handsome display of caladiums is being made by S. M. Damon. The plants are in the window of McInerney's shoe store on Fort street and have been greatly admired. This display consists of between 25 and 30 of the latest varieties of caladiums. They were imported from London recently.

The coloring of the caladium is especially brilliant. This variety of plant thrives much better in the Hawaiian Island than it does in the Old Country. The sunshine and warmer climate are responsible for the development of the colors. The plants are always much brighter and the coloring much handsomer here than even in England where the plants are raised. The plants will be on exhibition until Saturday. Mr. Damon has already a large number of these plants and has one hot house devoted exclusively to them.

MANY BUMS ON THE SHERIDAN

A varied assortment of hobos left Honolulu this morning. They departed on the transport Sheridan. They did not ship and they did not go listed as passengers. They stowed away. How the bunch of "bums" got aboard the vessel is uncertain. There are always more ways than one to accomplish such a thing. They stowed themselves on board and after the vessel gets out of Honolulu they will no doubt be unearthed from the coal piles and various places of the ships.

The local authorities are probably not adverse to the crowd getting away. While the hobos might have been put to jail to serve time such treatment does not work to advantage for after the man comes out of jail he finds it as difficult as before to get away. With a man who is in hard luck and unable to secure work, such treatment has a demoralizing effect, and it frequently turns him into a criminal. Whenever the opportunity for a crowd leaving by a vessel presents itself, the police are probably

APPEAL DISMISSED.

Judge De Bolt this morning gave a decision dismissing the appeal of defendants from the District Court in the case of T. R. Walker, T. May and J. Osborne vs. G. F. Gouveia, summary possession. The motion to dismiss the appeal was on the ground of failure of defendants to comply with the rules of procedure.

TOM FITCH AS DELEGATE

Col. Thomas Fitch is a candidate for delegate from Hawaii to the Republican National convention, to be held in Chicago. Letters received in Honolulu yesterday brought news of his candidacy, also the news that the colonel still regards Hawaii as his home. It was understood that he had settled elsewhere, but the colonel says Honolulu is his real home, and he would like to represent the G. O. P. of Hawaii at Chicago.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETING.
The Senate committee on finance met this morning and continued the discussion of the various items in the measure. No other committee met.

HEARD A NUMBER OF LARCENY CASES

There were a number of larceny cases on the police court calendar this morning but all of the alleged thefts were of a petty character. Takayanana was convicted of stealing some table felts from the Young Hotel and given a month in jail. Another case against him will be heard Saturday morning.

Ho Fong, the Chinese bellboy of the Mouna Hotel, charged with the theft of some articles from guests, fared much better for the prosecution was unable to make out a case and no one pressed the charge against him.

Antone, Joaquin and Frank Martin, Portuguese boys, charged with the theft of some fruit from Manuel Enos, had their cases continued until April 12.

Kalua, a native, was charged with the theft of a bag of coal. His case was continued by Judge Lindsay until tomorrow.

The cases of receiving stolen goods against Hosoi and Fotuda were continued until next Tuesday.

The charges of illicit distilling against Kimura and Kawasaki who were caught in an okolehao raid several days ago by the police were nolle prossed, as the pair had been turned over to the Federal authorities for prosecution under the United States statutes.

Louis Demoles and Manuel Quintal were fined $5 and costs each for attacking Ah Nee up Nuuanu valley some nights ago.

Seventeen defendants arrested last night by Officer Apana for gambling were charged with violating Section 521. All but two appeared and were fined $5 each. The pair who were absent forfeited bail.

SAFETY OF CRIMES COMMITTED BY MAIL

The spread of that comparatively recent form of crime which consists in transmitting poisoned edibles to persons residing at a distance may yet make necessary a considerable alteration of existing extradition laws. A novel case in point is brought up by the effort to extradite Mrs. Sherman Dye of Boone, Iowa, who is accused of sending poisoned candy to Miss Rena Nelson of Pierre, S. D. The governor of South Dakota sought to extradite Mrs. Dye, but Gov. Cummins of Iowa declined to issue the necessary papers and it can scarcely be doubted that in so doing he was acting in conformity with the law.

The idea underlying the extradition law is that the person to be extradited is a fugitive from the state where the crime was committed. The state having jurisdiction in a murder case is the state in which the victim meets his death, even though the agency causing death may have been set in motion elsewhere. Thus the alleged murder in the present case was "committed" in South Dakota, though the person accused had never been in that state and is in no sense a fugitive therefrom. She cannot be sent there for trial, nor can she be tried in Iowa. The fact that such a situation is likely to arise again, now that the candy-poisoning device is becoming a recognized method of homicide, suggests that some revision of the laws will be unavoidable. Governor Cummins seems to think that the emergency can be met by eliminating certain defects in the Iowa state law. If so it would be well for other states to see whether similar action is not necessary in the case of their own statutes.

If a remedy cannot be found through independent action of state legislatures, there must still be a recourse in the federal government. The federal judicial power, according to the constitution, extends to all controversies "between two or more states," and it would seem that under that broad authorization the federal courts might establish a ruling which would serve as a sure and sufficient precedent—Chicago Daily News.

SLAPOFFSKI TONIGHT

Second and Last Concert of Great Singer This Evening.

The farewell concert of Madame Slapoffski takes place this evening at the Opera House and is sure to be a largely attended affair. Honolulu is extremely cordial to genuine talent and has recognized the almost certain brilliance of the Australian artist's future after she reaches the great American public. Honolulu may hear her again some day but will probably hear of her through metropolitan successes before she again appears on a local platform.

The sale of seats for this evening has been large as aside from those who did not hear Madame Slapoffski at her first appearance the many who did are eager to duplicate their pleasure. The program offers a variety of attractiveness which is eminently calculated to display the many talents of the young singer to the full. Several gems have been chosen from foreign grand operas and some ballads new to Honolulu are also promised. The seat sale will continue open at Wall, Nichols Co., all day. The concert will start at the usual hour. Mrs. Gerard Barton has been secured as the accompanist, a fact upon which both the singer and the audience are to be cordially congratulated.

VALUABLE SHIPPING REGISTER.
The Insurance Department of Bishop and Company has issued a very valuable register of shipping of the Pacific Coast and the Hawaiian Islands.

COAST QUOTATIONS.

NEW JURY FEE LAW

Representative Andrade has ready for the House a new jury-fee law, act is as follows:

"Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

"Section 1. The per diem fees of jurors shall be taxed as costs of court in for Chinese interpreter, the same men officiating in the police court. Carter suggests only one Hawaiian interpreter, at $1,500 per year, and $2,820 for pay of clerks and interpreters in the District Court.

Under this system the interpreting for the Circuit courts except in Hawaiian, would be done on the fee system, an interpreter being sworn in for each case and given a fee at a stated rate for services performed out of the general sum for such a purpose.

Jury fees are left out altogether in Carter's plan, as suggested by Judge Robinson. This is a feature of the plan which Judge De Bolt strongly disapproved. Attorney A. G. M. Robertson has strongly criticized the whole plan, and it is thought that there will be opposition to it.

Governor Carter cuts out one of the district magistrates of Honolulu. Instead of two, at $250 and $125 per month, he proposes one at $200 per month.

Carter's recommendations provide for sweeping changes in the police of Oahu. The provisions for captains, lieutenants, detectives, hack inspectors, mounted officers, bicycle officers, Japanese and Chinese officers, etc., are all left out. There is provision for a High Sheriff, two Deputy High Sheriffs and two clerks, with Deputy Sheriffs for outside districts, and a general provision of $88,800 for "pay of Oahu police." A new appropriation is for "detective services," as follows: Oahu, $1,800; Hawaii, $1,200; Maui, $600; Kauai, $600.

The old appropriation bill divided the Oahu services into three watches, with captains, lieutenants, clerks, etc., in each. This whole scheme is abolished in the suggested appropriations of the Governor. There was also provision in the old law for two detectives at $150 per month each.

THE HOUSE CUTS UNDER CARTER

After tabling a resolution fixing the salaries of officers on a basis fifty per cent less than the pay of the last session, the House this morning went into committee of the whole and took up the salaries appropriation bill section by section. At the start the lawmakers began cutting under the governor's figures, Kumalae leading with speeches in favor of cutting "all alike."

The schedule of salaries of officers of the House, suggested by Lewis, was as follows:

Clerk, $6 per day; Interpreter, $5 per day; Chaplain, $50 for the session; Sergeant-at-Arms, $4 per day; Messenger, $3 per day; Janitor, $3 per day.

These figures are one-half of the last schedule. Long moved to table the proposition "for the present" and Lewis consented. The motion carried, with "straight" Republicans opposing it.

Andrade's bill for $10,000 for expenses of the session was passed on second reading and then the general salaries bill was taken up. Harris moved to take it up in committee of the whole. The motion carried, and Speaker Beckley invited him to take the chair. Harris didn't want to and Chillingworth was also reluctant. Representative Long consented and then the slashing of the Governor's figures began, with the irrepressible Kumalae on his feet much of the time talking with his usual speed.

The first item was $150 per month for chief clerk of the Secretary's office. Kumalae proposed reducing to $120. "We ought to cut all alike," he said. "Some salaries are cut more than others. I was told in the Secretary's office yesterday that the person who holds this office receives perquisites of $50 per month."

Vida said there were some salaries which had not been cut and he wanted all cut alike. "There are officers who, it is said, will resign if we cut them," he remarked. "Let them resign."

The cut passed and the next two items, $1,800 for additional clerks and cut from $150 to $140, the lump appropriations passing as fixed by the Governor.

The estimate for the registrar of conveyances was cut to $150 from $175. A motion to cut out the deputy registrar, $100, was lost, and the item passed; also $4,530 for pay of clerks.

The allowance of $425 per month, $7,500 per year, for ex-Queen Liliuokalani, was cut to $400 per month. Other permanent settlements recommended by the Governor were referred to the finance committee. Kanio, who had been with the cutters, voted on this item.

A motion to cut the amount recommended for Superintendent Holloway to $250 was lost and his salary passed at $300. The assistant superintendent and supervising engineer passed at $250 as recommended.

AUTOMOBILE TOUR OF THE WORLD

CHARLES J. GLIDDEN OF BOSTON
A FRIEND OF C. A. BROWN TO MAKE IT.

Charles J. Glidden of Boston, an intimate friend of C. A. Brown of Honolulu, who holds the long distance automobile record, having driven 13,795 miles in 15 European countries and across the Arctic Circle, has completed his itinerary for a proposed tour of the world and computes the distance 29,600 miles by automobile. If war conditions will permit with Mrs. Glidden and his engineer, Charles Thomas of London, he will start eastward about October 1 of this year, and 365 days will be required to make the drive. On account of the climate it is probable that the journey will be made in two sections, the first terminating at Athens at the end of this year; the party returning to Boston and starting from Athens in October, 1905. This will bring them in the warm equatorial climates at the proper season of the year. Mr. Glidden hopes to drive several miles in a country that will permit the crossing of the Equator in longitude of about 160 east. He will use the 24 horsepower Napier Car that has the Arctic Circle record and already about 10,000 miles of European driving. Through an extensive correspondence arrangements have been made for gasoline distribution and supplies at all time points and escorts where it may be necessary for safety; also for 18,000 miles steamship transportation for passengers and automobile. The entire route has been carefully outlined on maps of the countries to be visited and miles are distributed about as follows, the countries being mentioned in order of travel.

England, 261; France 512; Spain, 800; Portugal 500; Algeria, 1000; Tunis 400; Sicily, 354; Italy 970; Hungary 588; Turkey, 295; Greece 500; Egypt 450; Palestine 300; India 5000; Ceylon 500; East Indies 300; China 100; Japan 2,500; Hawaii 300; United States 4,600.

The roads of China are narrow and totally unfit for motoring outside of Hong Kong and the restrictions imposed by the government make a drive of any extent impossible. Of unusual interest will be the drive in Spain, Portugal, Algeria far into the desert of Sahara, in Palestine and India skirting the Himalayas; under the feathery bamboo and bread fruit trees of Ceylon, or the islands of the East Indies and in the flowery kingdom of Japan. If time will permit and climatic conditions are favorable, when in the locality, the Philippines will be added to the schedule.
